Animals' acceptance and returning:

- Animals must be transported to the place of exhibition by their own breeders;
- Each container must be properly marked by a label. The label must include the number of the show cage the breeder received from the exhibition organizer;
- Together with the number of the show cage the breeder receives a performing animal registration form. He must fill in an identification number (ear marking number) of his animal;
- After guarantee's approval the breeder himself puts his animal into the show cage;
- After putting the animal into the show cage the guarantee signs out and the exhibitor gives him the performing animals registration form that he filled previously;
- Returning of animals can be done only by an appropriate guarantee;
- After arrival each animal will be checked by a veterinarian for any disease. If the animal shows any signs of a disease it will not be allowed into the exhibition halls;
- Exhibitors please notice that all the fees already paid are not refundable;

- Weighting of an animal must be done at home by its breeder who writes down the weight of the animal into the performing animals registration form. There will be only random checking of the weight of the animals during exhibition.
- Exhibition committee is not responsible for any container's loss or damage that happens during the exhibition.

Judging

- The public are not admitted to the judging of animals;
- Only delegated judges, future judges in training, guarantees and exhibition committee members are allowed to the exhibition halls during the judging;
- It is possible to file a complaint but only for formal reasons and only during the exhibition. Complaints are filed in the exhibition office after paying a sum of 20 €. The Board of Appeals will inform the exhibitor of the results of investigation on a day he filed a complaint by 2:00 p. m. If the investigation shows the complaint was legitimate the 20 € fee will be returned to the exhibitor. If it is to the contrary, the fee goes for account of the exhibition.

Prizes

- All prizes/titles will be awarded based on achieved points and in accordance with actual regulation;
- The prizes/titles are:
 - European Master
 - European Champion
 - EE medal
 - Honorable mentions
 - MCH European Master (= Young Breeder European Master)
 - MCH European Champion (= Young Breeder European Champion)
- Breeders clubs and official sponsors may donate prizes that will be awarded;
- Each sponsor who wants to donate a cup or other prize may do so and he/she can choose whichever breed or coat color he/she wants to make the donation for;
- The prizes will be awarded during the presentation ceremony as a part of an evening party;
- All the prizes/titles will be given only at the ceremony, none will be sent by post.

Animal sale

- All animals can be sold only in booths;
- All animals for sale will be displayed in show cages;
- A sale price of an animal must be listed in the entry by his breeder;
- Each sale price will be displayed in the catalogue with 10 % increase from the original sale price required from a breeder. These 10 % will be used for account of the exhibition and the breeder will be paid the price he required in the entry;
- Animals without pedigree cards may also be sold if they are required by a buyer;
- Money from the sale will be paid out to the breeders during the exhibition in the exhibition office on Sunday 26th November 2017 from 12:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
- Please notice that in case a breeder does not collect his/her money during the exhibition those can be sent only to an account he/she has previously given in the entry;

Changes in exhibition conditions

- The exhibition committee reserves the right to make changes in exhibition rules and regulations in the interest of a successful running of the exhibition;
- Matters that are not presented in the exhibition rules and regulations will be decided by the exhibition committee
